

Recognise a half

Sort the pictures under the correct headings.

Half	Not a half

Recognise a half

1 Match the pictures to whether or not they show a half.

It shows a half

It does not show a half

Recognise a half

Sort the pictures under the correct headings.

Half	Not a half

Recognise a half

1 Match the pictures to whether or not they show a half.

It shows a half

It does not show a half

2 Which pictures show a half? Colour half of the pictures to show this.

Recognise a half

Sort the pictures under the correct headings. Then draw two pictures under each heading.

Half	Not a half

Recognise a half

- 1 Match the pictures to whether or not they show a half.
Draw your own in the blank boxes.

It shows a half

It does not show a half

- 2 Which shapes show a half? Colour half of the shapes to show this.

- 3 The pictures below show halves. True or false?

Recognise a half

Problem solving and reasoning cards:

Which apple has been split in half correctly?

Explain how you know.

Each picture represents one half.
Spot the mistakes.

Draw where you think half way is on each of the lines below.

To show a half two squares would need to be shaded.

Is Sue correct?

Prove it by shading half of the shape.

To show a half, the number of ones that need to be shaded is more than four.

True or false?

Explain your answer and show this.

Show four different ways of splitting a square in half.

