

Fire Man And The Fire Woman

The fireman and the firewoman were wearing suits to show that they work there.

The fireman and the fire woman had to train because they had just got the job.

The fireman and the fire woman had to put out fires because anything that was on fire that would be very dangerous. They also cut people out of cars when they crashed or flipped over.

The fireman's suit is yellow and red because it's very easy to see when they are doing something they also put masks on when they are in a fire.